

Tim Bost's PRACTICAL SPIRITUAL ASTROLOGY

September, 2005

What Is It?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Purpose & Benefits

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a manner that is consistently resourceful in bringing out the best qualities in our circumstances, completely congruent with our true creative nature, and genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

THE FOCUS FOR THE MONTH

The month begins with an intensely energetic Pluto station and the remarkable seed-energy of the New Moon. It's clear that we are in for major transformations, powerfully altering the world around us and creating an opportunity for new growth. In spite of the fact that we may not know exactly where we are going or may not be able to visualize clearly the outcomes we desire, we must somehow summon the courage to move forward. If we are willing to accept our vulnerability, expand our point of view, and embrace diversity as a genuine personal possibility in our lives, we can grab unexpected opportunities for reinventing ourselves and embracing all that life brings us. In the process, we can start to crystallize the ideas and insights that will prepare us for new beginnings as our awareness continues to expand.

Truth and Beauty

If we take a moment to observe our surroundings and reflect on the splendor and abundance that manifests in every way imaginable, we cannot help but be reminded of the fundamental unity of truth and beauty. This eternal verity, ever at the heart of the poetic awareness, is available to us now as a source of confidence and transformation, beckoning us toward the sort of inspired revelations that can help us lovingly transcend the conflict and pettiness that others often seem to find so compelling.

Passion and Action

Intense new passions arise within us as we move toward the Full Moon, illuminating all that we have accomplished and all that has become a part of us, for good or for ill. As usual, we are confronted with many choices, so there is the possibility that we will become absorbed in confusion and indecision. We should not underestimate the power of action, however, since action has an infinite capacity for dispelling illusion and for bringing clarity to almost any situation. By the time we are absorbing the cosmic blessings that come with the Full Moon, we will fully appreciate how important it is for each of us to offer our unique insights, to make our unique contributions, and to be at ease with being the divinely unique individuals we really are.

Claiming Spiritual Perfection

Will we ever get it right? Will we ever be able to rise to the sublimely high standards that spiritual perfection demands? Will we ever learn to set aside our inconsistencies long enough to connect with the Divine Purpose that drives our lives? When such thoughts occur to us, and when we find ourselves unwittingly dragged into fearful analysis of our own weaknesses and shortcomings, we need simply recall that we don't have to make any effort whatsoever to connect with the Divine Plan. In fact, we are already completely connected! We only have to remember our true nature to realign ourselves once again with our true purpose.

Calmness and Challenges

When we are confronted with challenging situations during the closing days of the month, it often seems enough for us simply to survive in the face of overwhelming odds and threatening circumstances. If we manage to escape unscathed, it's entirely natural for us to feel a sense of relief. But what is even more important is the inner calmness, the profound knowing, that that relief engenders. When we are centered in the ultimate peace of pure consciousness, we can effortlessly bring into manifestation any possibility we can imagine.

Spiritual Living in the Material World

We face many challenges when we try to bring our spiritual awareness into the realm of mundane reality, but there are few challenges greater than the ones that revolve around money. Financial concerns have enormous power, and that power can be used wisely to transform our lives and to open up new avenues of loving and creative service. Money questions automatically create emotional stress, and automatically move us into bigger opportunities for personal growth and spiritual evolution.
