WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

“What we are looking for is what is looking.”

- St. Francis of Assisi

THE FOCUS FOR FEBRUARY

As the shortest month of the year, February is always here and gone before we know it! This year, however, February brings us many wonderful opportunities for spiritual growth and personal evolution. If we are willing to pay attention to the cosmic cycles at work and to look compassionately toward others and lovingly within ourselves, we can be sure that the month will be a memorable and significant one.

At the beginning of the month, as we continue to look back on the path of our evolution so far, both individually and in our group awareness, it's painfully easy to see our shortcomings and weaknesses. We may even feel a little overwhelmed by what we must confront within ourselves.

Even so, our task at this time is not to wallow in guilt or self-pity, but rather to reevaluate ourselves in the light of our divine destiny, emphatically claiming a more enlightened vision and a greater expression of love in our lives. With Venus returning to direct motion early this month, we can bring new refinement, sensitivity, and understanding to all our endeavors.

Throughout the month, but especially during the week prior to the Full Moon, there is a high potential for emotion friction. When words and actions don't match, there's sure to be tension. We may become unclear about who we really are, and feel that our growth is somehow being thwarted. What we need is a total transformation of our awareness, getting out of our heads and into our hearts so we can rediscover our own true generosity, playfulness and magnificence.

Our emotional stress is likely to remain with us around the time of the Full Moon on February 12, but if we choose to rely on ourselves instead of blaming our circumstances or finding fault with others, we are likely to gain important insights. Our greatest flash of inspiration may simply be that we can trust Divine Guidance in a benevolent Universe, that we don't need to have all the answers. We simply need to be willing to take the risks that will lead us to true mastery.

After the Sun enters Pisces on February 18, the circumstances around us will be changing rapidly. As we try to function in the “real world,” we may feel overwhelmed by radical shifts in our sense of what is trustworthy and reliable. But that change can be a positive thing, spurring us on to greater

LEARNING TO LIVE AT HIGHER LEVELS

"Most of us can learn to live in perfect comfort on higher levels of power. Everyone knows that on any given day there are energies slumbering in him which the incitements of that day do not call forth. Compared with what we ought to be, we are only half awake. It is evident that our organism has stored-up reserves of energy that are ordinarily not called upon - deeper and deeper strata of explosible material, ready for use by anyone who probes so deep. The human individual usually lives far within his limits."

- William James

creativity and more innovative action. We may even find that our individual initiative is rewarded in surprisingly loving and supportive ways.

At the New Moon on February 27, as we plant the seeds of who we are to become, we must be comfortable acting in the dark. If we have been courageous amid the challenges of our recent experience, we will have gained and assimilated all we need to expand our awareness and capabilities far beyond what we ever might have imagined is humanly possible, and we can trust those capabilities completely. Communications challenges may be developing now, but if we simply focus on the true meaning of our actions instead of worrying about the nuances of our words, we will open up wonderful new opportunities for divine exploration.

Spiritual Living in the Material World

We face many challenges when we try to bring our spiritual awareness into the realm of mundane reality, but there are few challenges greater than the ones that revolve around money.

Financial concerns have enormous power which can be used wisely to transform our lives and to open up new avenues of loving and creative service. Money questions automatically create emotional stress, and automatically move us into bigger opportunities for personal growth, spiritual evolution, and personal contribution.
