WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

THE FOCUS FOR SEPTEMBER

Although we are currently faced with challenging tensions both personally and globally, we have an opportunity now to define more clearly who we are and to get in touch with what will give our spiritual values their fullest and most rewarding expression. While it is still difficult to open up to intuitive insights now, we can remember there is always a place for love in our hearts as we understand new ways to express our spiritual power more appropriately, using it to define our vision for enlightenment and refined expression more sharply as we work to bring our ideals into material form.

Although we may feel surrounded by the alienating forces of patriotism, vengefulness, and suspicion, we can nevertheless affirm the possibility of cultural and societal unity, not based on drawing lines in the sand, but founded rather upon a shared awareness of cosmic identity and elevated values. With the Solar Eclipse on September 11, we are offered the possibility of striving toward more advanced spiritual goals. In fact, if we simply remember that we are all on the spiritual path together, we can move forward into higher states of consciousness, sharing the delights of enlightened wonder with the people we hold most dear.

We may wish that our spiritual and material were always characterized by steady forward progress, but setbacks and times of consolidation are not only inevitable; they are also helpful. When we take time to pull back from activity, to pause and reflect, to turn within, we can more clearly imagine all the ways that we are truly blessed, divinely certified to project our own awareness into material form and shower our own loving energies out into the world at large. By the time that Mars opposes Pluto, we will once again be able to repolarize ourselves, defining new goals and recognizing greater opportunities as we reclaim our ability to express our true connection and our inalienable identity with the Divine.

Finally, as we move toward the Full Moon, we can become completely clear about who we really are and why we are really here. As we do so, we can experience greater wholeness, greater dynamism, and a greater and more loving resonance with others. By actively following this path, we can not only reach new heights of creative fulfillment; we can also set a higher standard for our future goals and accomplishments.
