WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

THE FOCUS FOR DECEMBER

Our true essence is completely unbounded, and yet we must constantly confront the apparent limitations that our circumstances offer us. Above all, we are circumscribed by our emotions, by the forces within ourselves that drive us headlong in directions that may not match our higher purposes. But once we recognize those parameters, we can open up fully to the inherent strength and creativity that find expression when we focus on the highest and best within ourselves.

At some level we all have a need to prove ourselves, to demonstrate the essence of the beauty and strength and wonder that make us who we truly are. Life is full of encounters and experiences which offer opportunities to test our capacity, to grow beyond our assumptions, and to imagine unbounded possibilities. But when we rise to the occasion and push beyond what we previously thought possible, the real message that we communicate is not to the world at large, but to ourselves. We are the ones, after all, who need to be reminded again and again of our own divinity.

As we awaken to the full capacity of our spiritual impulses, we can also connect more dynamically with our imaginative and creative abilities, with the integrity of our intellects, with the vibrancy of our emotional expressions, and with the sacred polarization of our sexuality. As yet we can only imagine what it is like to live as fully integrated human beings, but we become what we pretend to be, and as we envision the broadest possibilities for ourselves, we automatically expand our ability to manifest the highest good.

The solemn time of the Winter Solstice brings us abundant blessings as we awaken from the depths of darkness and despair to glimpse the divine potential ever born anew within our hearts. If we stop our striving and our ego-driven sense of separation, we can participate more fully in the sacred rhythm of this potent time, conquering old limitations and unresourceful attitudes to claim our true role as empowered and enlightened transmitters of love and wisdom.

As we end this year and begin a new one, we naturally pause to reflect on previous accomplishments and shortcomings. It's important now, however, not to allow ourselves to get pulled back into the past. We are here to move forward, and as we embark on the new adventure that lies ahead of us, we can rediscover a fresh sense of community with those who share our journey, and in the process remember once again that the greatest power and the greatest transformations come to us through the gift of love.
