WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

“What we are looking for is what is looking.”

- St. Francis of Assisi

THE FOCUS FOR MAY

There's great good fortune for us throughout the month of May if we are ready to let go and open ourselves up to the irresistible flow of divine energy in our lives. The push toward spirituality is not just an intellectual pursuit or even an emotional exercise, but a refined vibration at the core of every atom in our being. This is a remarkable time of new beginnings for us all, a time in which we can express our most innocent desires with unabashed delight.

Sometimes, however, we bite off more than we can chew, or so it seems from our conventional perspective and from the context of our social limitations. Even so, we are called upon right now to stretch our awareness and our imagination boldly and without hesitation, because in our never-ending quest for more love in our lives we have only love to give, and love given is never love depleted.

When we feel ourselves being swept away at times by the tide of cultural and national values, when the clamor of group consciousness risks overwhelming the still, small voice within the depths of our own individual awareness, we must of course adapt ourselves to the demands of circumstance. But even within that adaptation, we have the ability to retain and nurture the seeds of a fresh spiritual efflorescence, a new growth of the divine impulse reaching through our lives to bless the planet as a whole.

If we are willing to look beyond the expected norms and established forms in every realm of our activity, we may suddenly find ourselves exploding with new energy, fresh insights, and a reawakened awareness of our true spiritual purpose. When we dare give that consciousness its fullest possible expression, we can connect with the amazing comfort of sustained vitality and divine audacity that can take us to heights of perception as yet undreamed of.

In other words, it's time at last to leave the past behind, to let our history speak for itself and then be still instead of being fated to participate in its perpetual repetition. If we have suffered and sacrificed, if we have debased ourselves and sought new depths of humility, so what? This is the occasion for a bigger reach and a broader focus, and we are here to share the unbounded reality of persistent grace with all the world.
