WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

"What we are looking for is what is looking."

- St. Francis of Assisi

THE FOCUS FOR MARCH

The inevitable polarizations that we confront as we participate in day-to-day activities, and the remarkable intensification of those polarizations as we consciously embrace the spiritual path, can at once be energizing and confusing, inspiring and discouraging. But it is through the polarizations themselves that we can perhaps best experience a profound quickening of the spiritual impulse, just as the polarizing energy of lovers enhances their passion and the depth of their connection as they draw closer together.

There are times, of course, when it is appropriate for us to pause in our endeavors, to step back and reconsider our activities, perhaps even to reformulate our preconceptions and commitments. As we do so, we may feel pulled between two seemingly contradictory realms, the highly-refined sphere of divine energy that surrounds us and the gruesomely restrictive plane of material existence that pulls us down into pragmatic activity. Even so, that cosmic dichotomy is the model and the expression of who we truly are as human beings--embodiments of earthly limitations who are sublimely reaching for the stars.

When we are willing to give our emotional bodies full expression as part and parcel of the spiritual wholeness of our existence, we perpetually find ourselves at the threshold of significant new beginnings. As we become acclimated to that kind of miraculous occurrence in our daily lives, recognizing and fully appreciating the grandeur and dazzling potential of each new day, we can gently move into the higher awareness that allows us to become individual embodiments of the collective will toward ever-more-refined spiritual fulfillment.

Our hidden fears can paralyze us in worldly activity and in spiritual growth, but we can transform those fears into personal power and spiritual vitality if we open ourselves to a freshly renewed understanding of who and what we are. If we are willing to reconsider our past history and the cultural biases that overshadow our individual striving toward self-realization and enlightened fulfillment, we can begin to see traditional conventions and conventional wisdom in a new and more highly energized context, one that opens our hearts and minds to new and exciting possibilities.
